Public Plunder

We hear a vast deal from those who sympathize with secession about the enormous frauds which are committed, and might almost suppose that, of the millions expended daily for the prosecution of the war the largest part was stolen Indeed some of these sharp critics seem to care nothing about the real purpose of Government expenditures, and perhaps if their rebellious allies could succeed, would not murmur, though all the wealth of the nation were squandered The cry they raise is only made to divert attention from their own iniquity They never blame those who have opened the door and made such expenses necessary. They do not seem to think the Government worth saving at any cost, but raising their hands in hypocrit cal agony keep yelling, "Why was all this waste of the ointment made?" They forget all about Floyd and the host of secession robbers who loved the Union, while they could steal from its Treasury, and never discovered that there was any hardship or injustice under its rule till they found themselves out We know and deeply regret that stealing is so much the order of the day among army contractors, political swindlers, thieving demagogues, and even Congressmen, who double their mileage, when the land is groaning under burdens grievous to be borne. Millions, which ought to have been employed in making the soldiers comfortable and providing the requisites for efficiency in the army and navy, have been plundered by those moral monsters whom all men detest. The Government has deprecated their existence and their base success in the art of pilfering, but it was helpless in the extremity of its trouble and its agony Such consequences always follow in the train of a great war, and always will They cannot be avoided. With an efficient police about us, we cannot keep burglars from our stores, or incendiaries from our dwellings, and when thousands, at heart more corrupt than burglars and incendiaries, apply to the Government for contracts to furnish such articles or do such services as are needed, who come armed with recommendations and testimonials, which, if the Deity was not omniscient, we might suppose would admit them to heaven, what can be expected? Governments, as well as corporations, national, State or municipal, are regarded and treated as "having no souls"—plunder from them with many is honest gain, and he is the shrewdest and wisest who gets the largest share' This doctrine of devils is cursing the nation and eating up its life blood, but because it is so, shall we stop our efforts to crush rebellion? Because Simon Cameron is stealing apples in our orchard shall we permit Jeff Davis to burn down our dwelling?

We have no word of sympathy or respect for the plunderers Next to the rebels, they deserve our scorn and the severest punishment, but when we find those who are full of vehement wrath against the Government, because it is more or less cheated in spite of itself, or even by its own guilty neglect, while they never lisp a syllable against deadly treason, we have no faith in their integrity or loyalty. They, in times past have lived on the National Treasury, they now seem to feel that it is a great hardship, if any stealing is to be done, that their hands are not employed clear up to the elbows Shame on such hypocrisy! If they are sincere, let them assist in putting down the rebellion, and we will then cheerfully help them and all loyal men in punishing those who have been guilty of public plunder

WE PITY HIM —One of our subscribers in Lane county has returned the OREGONIAN marked "Refused on account of a rebel wife Well, we don't blame him for we are well satisfied that our paper would play the mischief with the woman and for the sake of peace in the family, we submit to the loss WANTS TO KNOW —A victim requests us to ask what has become of the Sanitarian? He says he paid $2 and received two numbers—no more.

BIBLE SOCIETY —The annual meeting of the Oregon Bible Society will be held to-day, in the M E Church commencing at 10 o clock, A M Sermon in the evening, at 7½ o'clock

The late Major General Sumner rose from the ranks, having entered the army as a private in 1819

At the Builder's Iron Foundry, Providence, R I, four tons of shells are cast each day and cannon as fast as they can be finished Fifteen eleven inch guns have already been cast, six of which are nearly finished The specific gravity and tenacity of each gun are ascertained by the department at Washington, from samples of the material taken from each casting A new air furnace of a capacity of twenty-five tons similar to the one now in use, has been constructed also a pit, preparatory to casting thirteen inch cannon, which will be commenced soon

The Duty of Patriots

EDITOR OREGONIAN

A few days since upon the bulletin boards in front of the Daily Times and Evening Bulletin offices, I noticed a large placard headed by the name of the Democratic party, in which was set forth the privilege of your loyal journal to say a few words to the citizens of Oregon which while they appear blunt and plain to some are said with the kindest of feeling to all, as I are animated by no hope but that of helping to keep the record of Oregon free from the stain of treason and insuring it a large population well meaning men who would, as I have been entitled with the Democratic party in the first place we assert that it is badly wrong that the cause of this Rebellion is party measures and questions will subside into the background the Union will be preserved the traitors now in arms against it will meet with the punishment which pertains to their crime and treason will be made odious and our country will treat with the nations of the earth as an undivided and indivisible nation

Secondly the leaders of this unnatural rebellion are all Democratic politicians who have been educated in the school of State Sovereignty which has been carried into practical effect by the Democratic party in power to the extent of overriding the will of the constitutional majority of the citizens of that Government

Thirdly that these traitors will of their own motion and free will have given proof of their determination to bring about that result even at the cost of the overthrow of our institutions and the consummation of the American Republic They have actually acknowledged their preference for anarchy and ruin by the alliance they have effected, to the quelling of the rebellion and the proving to the world that a government self sustaining and self perpetuating, they remaining private and unpunished citizens

Nothing can be more clear than these facts the rebels if treated well with a view to return but [once, the moment the Government again in their hands, or the dismemberment of the Union in either case they who by gigantic efforts reduced the country to that humiliating condition will have no valuable claims upon the parties thus armed with power and patronage nor can reasonably expect reward

But these questions are to be addressed to declare that personal motives actuate them no reaction can be brought about sooner than per so they approach the honest and country loving public instinctively and quite unanimously and deliberately about "peace" "fraternal war" "bloodshed," "taxes," "infringement of the Constitution" "laws and disabilities" while they are holding secret meetings of advisement with reference to regarding intervention in the question of the hellish compact style the Southern Confederacy

As we love our country —as we desire the perpetuation of her distinguished institutions —as we pray that she may be all to assert herself superior to unprovoked rebellion we declare it to be our honest conviction that when one of this clan cries peace, that offer would appease his clamor,—when he bawls "civil war" it is because that war must eventually extinguish the fraternity of traitors to which he belongs and which while he has cast his lot,—when he speculates the shedding of blood and the levying of taxes, the object thereby to be attained and not the necessary means, fill him with holly horror, and when he bemoans infringements of the constitution, delays incapacity etc etc he is only hypocritically pretending to be greatly exercised about the very things he would be a blatant apologist for did they tend to his personal benefit

The duty of the true patriot is evident No man who loves his country more than he hates this attempt to disorganize it can for a moment listen to this special pleading, or countenance this treasonable effort to get upon reconstruction The heart is often pleased but beware of these plausible arguments which gradually turn your reason against your honest impulses Be wary of that man who buts and ifs when discussing the state of the country, for while foes are in arms against us there is no middle ground —every man at heart is a radical patriot or a radical traitor, —and above all if ever party is not belonged to any political party that had existed before the beginning of this war —forget every principle of past political struggles, plainly and constantly bear in mind the central and important issues are being tried, and that it is of much consequence to you and to posterity upon which side you are now found and if no argument whatever what or where you were a year or two ago

We take the following items from the Dalles Mountaineer, of the 12th inst:

SOLDIER KILLED —About 12 o'clock last night a soldier went to the house of Lucy Mitchell on Third street near Court and endeavored to force an entrance A bell was sounded to arouse the inmates when the intruder ran but was followed and stabbed in the back with a knife The friend then called out in Both to his assistance who was in turn attacked and left dead The officer then drew his revolver and fired the ball taking effect in the left cheek about an inch below the eye causing instant death The deceased was a Scotchman and at the time of his death was in private in Company F, W T Volunteers stationed at Fort Vancouver

Capt Rowell and Lieut Haskell of the 4th Infantry California Volunteers have been dismissed from the service by command of the President A few months since Capt Rowell was stationed at Fort Walla Walla Lieut Haskell was ordered to Capt Ebbs command while stationed at Fort Dalles Lora a few months the disgraced Lieut was in command of a detachment of troops at the Warm Spring Reserve

BOISE DUST —The Nez Perce chief brought down from Walula two Boise adventurers —One of them had 40 pounds of dust his companion 20 pounds The latter of them were gay boys and on the way to Walula managed to get rid of about $400

COLORED MEN TO BE DRAFTED —The following is from the Washington correspondence of the World

It is reported to-day that one of the first draft in the North will be from the free negro population All the able bodied men between twenty and thirty five years of age are to be taken to fill up the ranks The various negro regiments already in service have been kept up in this way It is also reported at the instigation of Gov Andrew who is very anxious the free negroes for their backwardness in coming to fight their own battles Enough of negroes could be had within our present army lines to garrison the seaboard as government designs by this class of troops and the impression of the southern negroes would immediately add about 40,000 effective men to the black army Both Republicans and Democrats here are both agreed as to the propriety of trying a conscription among the blacks first

Indiscriminating colonization and indiscriminate invective or equally [illegible]—both good for nothing

HOW AN ENGLISHMAN TALKS —The following eloquent conclusion of Rev Newman Hall's great speech at the Exeter Hall meeting is well worth reading

The heart of Old England is sound on the question of emancipation though her voice has not yet been as forcibly heard We are resolved to suffer throughout the land the proposition with which I started—that a war the horrors of which we all lament having broken out between the Northern and Southern States the sympathies of free England must be with the North rather than with the South because with the success of North rather than with the South is identified the great cause of negro emancipation [Applause] And in affirming this we wish to give renewed and emphatic utterance to a few simple principles which should regulate Christian statesmanship in all assemblies [cheering] John says "These principles are such as these —that God has made of one blood all nations to dwell upon the face of all the earth [cheers] that there is no right so sacred as that which a man has to himself, no wrong so flagrant as that of robbing a man of himself [cheers] that it is an abomination to enslave a man and to sell him [cheers] that it is no less an abomination to breed a man in order to sell him, and for a man to barter away his own offspring for gold [loud cheers] that it is an abomination to enslave a man or a woman on the auction block and sell their muscles and hand them over to the highest bidder as you would cattle [shame] that it is an imputation to deny to a woman the rights of chastity and maternity [hear hear] it is an abomination judicially to declare that a human has rights which a white man is bound to respect that it is an abomination to make a wicked woman whether she be a Hungarian countess or an African slave that it is an abomination to impress, as I am reported to have done, a man for the purpose of making him fight another man to read the Bible [laughter] that it is a blasphemy to call that Bible a charter of defiance of such abominations [hear hear] that a conflict carried on with such objects is not war but piracy and murder and that any man who should be regarded as engaged in a portentous piracy rather than in legitimate warfare [cheers,] that the cons and heart of free England can never wish to regenerate an empire avowing as its corner stone the right to maintain and extend these abominations, and lastly as the recognition of an empire involves the reception of its ambassador that the loyalty of Great Britain forbids the very idea of such an indignity being offered to the Royal Lady we delight to venerate as that her pure, maternal, and kind hand which wields only the sceptre of love over the free should ever be contaminated by the kiss of any representative of a foul conspiracy against Civilization, Humanity and God! [Immense Applause]

OPEN REBELS ON THE DEMOCRATIC NORTH —James T Brady said not long ago that he knew no Englishman so low that he would seek friendly intercourse association with others who despised and spit upon him The rebel papers [the Northern Democrats that in matters such as these 'Southern gentlemen will have to hold their noses' Yet the Northern secessionists abase themselves on their knees before these men who tell them again and again and yet again that they are despised and that they stink! Hear the Richmond Enquirer on the 'glorious old party':

The democratic party, neutral as it was in principle, false to both sides, and wholly indifferent to the morale of either of the opposing communities placed itself between the banner of 'spoils,' and—we all know the rest The idea of that odious party coming to life again makes us shiver Its foul breath is malaria its touch is lead Give us the open foeman let him be as ferocious and greedy as you will Let our enemy appear as an exterminating Yankee host we pray and not as a Democratic Convention 'Let him take any shape but that'

AN IMPRUDENT REBEL —A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, writing from Charleston ventures to say

Allow me to suggest for the seal of the Confederate States the following

In the foreground a mule, plough and negro driver, whip in hand in the back ground a cavalry soldier, with hunting shirt slouched hat and heavy boots, sabre drawn horse rampant

As to the inscription I am not particular as long as it is expressive It might be well to adopt an idea that has been frequently alluded to by gentlemen of this State which is just the opposite of liberty equality and the rights of man viz Slavery, inequality, and the rights of masters

A correspondent of the New York Evening Post says that while the eloquent appeal in favor of the war by the Forty fourth New York regiment was being signed by the officers and men an old pioneer who can guide you to the best trouting among the Adirondacks came hurriedly in from his work chopping and said Colonel I didn't see this till just now there's my sentiments exactly when I was at home there always used to be some fellers on the farm, who when they drew a load of hay into a swale always wanted to unhitch the team and go home and stay two or three days but I always went in for pitching the load off making the waggon right and getting home and got done all on it before puttin the thing up —and I reckon put his name down in front and put it in

HOW TO JOIN THE PARTS —At a dinner party given in New York in the year 17—, a gentleman of considerable notoriety as a wit was asked Pray, what is a Tory He replied A Tory is a creature whose home is in England while his body is in America and I think the two parts ought to be joined by stretching the neck We have still persons among us not unlike this description of the Tory whose heads are in Richmond while their bodies are in New York and though we might not recommend to old rebs but [illegible] a plan of bringing the two parts together by stretching the intervening membrane we should certainly not object to seeing the body sent where the head is —N Y Post

The principle on which the draft was based was that they can cure the rebellion in no other way but by physicking We have told you all along that the habit of the log is good for this bite and honest athletic cure is best in that people Thus it can in no case happen that they beat him up if he have hill they cut him down Upon the same principle the democracy having brought on the rebellion, a little more of that same ought to take it off The difficulty how ever is that the remedy is as bad as the disease

PATRIOTISM OF THE CLERGY —The Providence Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Warren, Rhode Island adopted an unequivocal report upon the state of the country thanking Congress for including the clergy in the Conscription Act

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—Judge M. P. Deady, presiding.—The Court, yesterday, was occupied in hearing a number of motions. The Grand Jury for the term, consist of Messrs. E. L. Quimby, T. J. Reed, W. P. Wasson, Alex. McComb, David Powell, Joseph Sloan, and James Burke. The trial jury are as follows: T. J. Humphrey, A. R. Shipley, Wm. Barlow, Robert Pentland, James Blossom, James Menzies, T. J. Holmes, H. S. Jacobs, Jas. M. More, Thos. Prichard, Lloyd Brook, Hyram Smith, Wm. S. Hussey, Isreal Mitchell, Sherry Ross, C. S. Silvers, and Edward Burton.

The grand jury has returned sundry indictments against offenders, for violation of United States laws, for whom warrants have been issued and placed in the hands of the Marshal.

Henry H. Luse was arraigned on a charge of cutting timber on Government lands.—Trial set for to-day.

RECORDER'S COURT.—James Moreland was brought up before his Honor for being found in a state of helpless inebriation on the sidewalk; for which misdemeanor he was sent to the city jail for three days in default of paying a fine of five dollars.

George Gutzler was arrested for disturbing the peace and quietude of the neighborhood in the southern portion of the city.

At the instigation of "Dr. Scott," a Chinaman, who has an assortment of drugs and enjoys an extensive practice in the healing art on Alder street, another Mongolian named Ching Shu was arrested on charge of disorderly and violent conduct in assaulting the person of the Doctor with hostile intentions; it appearing, however, in the evidence given that the Doctor, and not the said Ching Shu, was the aggressor, the latter was discharged while the former was compelled to pay five dollars and costs, which was willingly done, although the barbarian mode of dealing out justice was scarcely perceptible to the bewildered Chinaman.

There are not many cases of fast riding and driving to record now, which is good evidence that people are becoming convinced that there is an ordinance against such dangerous practice, and that Marshal Clark and his deputies are determined to see it enforced.

COLUMBIAN No. 3's VISIT TO DALLES.—We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation from the committee, Wm. B. Clark and Thos. G. Lyon, to accompany Columbian Engine Co. No. 3 on an excursion to Dalles on Monday next, the 12th inst., which, we regret to say, we are compelled to most respectfully decline, as our business at the present time renders it impossible for us to be absent. Invitations have been extended to the Mayor and members of the City Council, and to the officers of the different fire companies in the city. A jolly time is anticipated.

SAILED.—The steamer Sierra Nevada sailed from this port last evening, for San Francisco, by the way of Victoria.

KEGS FOR SALE.—Five hundred liquor kegs are advertised for sale by Mr. Stephen G. Skene, cooper, who has a shop on corner of Second and B streets. Mr. S. is a fine workman, and we are safe in recommending him to all persons who are in want of barrels, kegs, tubs, or anything else in his line of business.

HIDE AND HIDES.—The trade in wool and hides for Eastern markets is increasing. M. Weinhard & Co., 112 Front street, bought last Friday twenty bales of wool and two hundred and fifty hides for shipment to the East. We believe farmers can do well by calling on Heusburg & Co., as they are paying good prices, in coin.

FIRE AT SALEM.—The following account of the late fire at Salem, is from the Statesman of the 11th inst.:

About three o'clock yesterday morning, fire broke out in the rear of Jno. Byrne's store, on the east side of Commercial street, and in an incredibly short time extended to the adjoining buildings, destroying all on that side from N. Fish's crockery store south to Ferry street, and back to the alley. The losses, as far as ascertained, are as follows: Young & Freeman, of the Union Hotel, $1,500; P. D. Palmer, $1,500; John Byrne, $5,000; Louis Byrne, $5,000; John Taylor, $400; Gilbert & Fletcher, $500; N. Cohen, $1,000; J. B. & M. Hirsch, $800; N. Fish, $400; crockery smashed in removing. The barber, $500. Mitchell & Co., McCready and others lost something in damage to goods. The unascertained loss added to the above will swell the amount to not less than $25,000.

The houses on the opposite side of the street narrowly escaped burning. The heat was so intense that blankets saturated with water were burned through, the glass in the windows broken and the paint curled off. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, as no fire had been used about that part of Salem for six weeks.

WORTH KNOWING.—For the same price as you usually pay for a suit of slop clothing, Hastings, Hastings & Co., the celebrated Clothiers and Tailors of Montgomery street, corner of Sutter, San Francisco, will forward you an outfit that will give you satisfaction as to style, quality and workmanship. If you are unable to visit the city, send your measure, and they will send you garments that will fit; or, if you do not mind waiting, they will send on to their New York house, and the goods will be delivered to you, made to order, in sixty days, without extra charge.

DIED:

In Oswego, Clackamas county, of Diptheria, on the 2d inst., Joanna Harvey McMillen, in his tenth year; and on the 6th inst., Union McMillen in his seventh year, both sons of Mr. James McMillen.

These boys, as well as Frank W., the eldest brother, whose death, from the same disease, was published last week, were members of Trinity School, Oswego, and gave great promise of usefulness in life. The younger one, Union, had more than ordinary mental ability, and had already raised himself in his teachers by his uncommon desire to learn, and diligence in his studies. Almost his last words were a kind parting message to his teachers, and the expressed hope of meeting again in Heaven. While we mourn their untimely death, we are consoled by the belief that they will be graciously received by Him who, on earth, "took little children up in his arms and blessed them."

DR. D. JAYNES'

EXPECTORANT

AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG, and found such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold, that there is no place on the civilized globe where they have not been sold; that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who, in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from including a dwindling in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy, that they should be allowed to read some of the cases where its influence has been useful in removing complaints which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates Immediately upon the Disease,

SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT,

while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, and assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors.

UPPER LEACHMERE, Chester Co. Pa. Sept 15, 1862.

DR D JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove effectual in curing me, I determined to try the suffering myself. I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT and, taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured. NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

ASTORIA, Long Island Jan 15, 1860

L. W. TINGLE, Esq New York—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest and great difficulty in breathing, nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in all kinds of medicine, when at last I was induced to purchase a box of your PILLS and began the use of them, not enough knowing EXPECTORANT of Dr Jayne of Philadelphia. Those of us who have been compelled to take it, say that it is most unbearable. The expectoration was easy, and in a few days quite free.

I am now free from that pain, and my general health has never been better.

I remain, my dear Tingle, with esteem, your servant and friend, J. B. MONIE

WINFIELD, Lawrence Co. Ill., May 31, 1860.

DR D JAYNE—Dear Sir: My little daughter Expectorant cured my daughter of a severe cough. Many having been given up by the doctors over. During the attack she had a number of convulsions, she is now perfectly well. J. H. COLEMAN

BRISTOL, Bradford Co. Pa. July 3, 1863

DR D JAYNE—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease called bleeding CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS and after taking five bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day. JOHN HENRY

We would call the attention of those who are afflicted with Consumption to the above and assure that the statement is true. HENRY, WILHELM & CO

For a greater number and variety of certificates, and full information regarding their use and other of Dr D Jaynes and Sons Expectorant, as reference is given to the ANNUAL ALMANAC which may be had from any Druggist or Dealer in Medicine.

IN A PERFECT MANNER,

A greater range of work than any other machine.

The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood, iron, brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together, and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. DR. BAKER'S

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and balsams. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. Many of our most illustrious say that I have never known any liniment, internal or external, to be compared to it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe toothache, apply the Pain Panacea to a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Haste Not—Rest Not.

FROM THE GERMAN.

Without haste! without rest!
Bind the motto to thy breast;
Bear it with thee as a spell;
Storm or sunshine, guard it well!
Heed not flowers that round thee bloom,
Bear it onward to the tomb!

Haste not! let no thoughtless deed
Mar for aye the spirit's speed;
Ponder well and know the right,
Onward then with all thy might.
Haste not! years can ne'er atone
For one reckless action done.

Rest not! life is sweeping by,
Do and dare before you die;
Something mighty and sublime
Leave behind to conquer time!
Glorious 'tis to live for aye,
When these forms have passed away.

Haste not! rest not! calmly wait;
Meekly bear the storms of fate!
Duty be thy polar guide—
Do the right whate'er betide!
Haste not! rest not! conflicts past,
God shall crown thy work at last.

A POLITE LIEUTENANT MISAPPRECIATED.—A Camp Bliss (Mo.) correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat relates the following amusing incident:

Quite an amusing incident happened to a Lieutenant of the division a few days ago. The said Lieutenant is well educated and of immense politeness, especially to ladies; and in his present banished situation, not having many opportunities of paying his decoirs to the fair sex, is, of course, the more attentive when an opportunity does occur.

This much by way of preface: now to the story:

An officer stopped at a house where the Lieutenant referred to had taken dinner the day before, and the lady of the house inquired if he knew Lieutenant T.

"Yes, madam; why do you ask?"

"What kind of a man is he?" asked the woman.

"One of the politest men in the army, madam—a perfect gentleman," was the answer.

"Well, I think he puts on a heap of style."

"Madam, I am surprised to hear that you don't like Lieutenant T.; he is very popular with the ladies—a general favorite in fact."

"Well, I don't like the way he talked to me."

"There must be a mistake somewhere, madam; what did he say?"

"Why, I believe he tried to blackguard me."

"Impossible! Madam, I can't believe for a moment that Lieutenant T. would do anything of that kind; he is the pink of politeness."

"I don't care if he is; he tried to blackguard me."

"What did he say?"

Here a port Miss of sixteen—mostly feet and ankles—put in;

"Mam, tell him what the man said; I don't believe he was a tryin' to blackguard; but mam's sich a fool."

"Well, if I must tell: after goin' over all the big words he could think of, he asked me, 'What was the State of my nativity?' and if that ain't blackguardin' I don't know it when I hear it."

It will be a long time before the Lieutenant forgets the state of his nativity.

A YANKEE COLONEL.—Mr. Oglesby, colonel of a regiment of State volunteers, struck me by his shrewdness, simple honesty, and zeal. He told me that he had begun life in utmost obscurity, but that somehow or other he got into a lawyer's office, and there, by hard drudgery, by mother wit, and industry, notwithstanding a defective education, he had raised himself not only to independence but to such a position that 1,000 men had gathered at his call, and selected one who had never led a company in his life to be their colonel; in fact, he is an excellent orator of the Western school, and made good, homely, telling speeches to his men. "I'm not as good as your Frenchmen of the schools of Paris, nor am I equal to the Russian colonels I met at St. Petersburg, who sketched me out how they had beaten you Britishers at Sebastopol," said he, "but I know I can do good straight fighting with my boys when I get a chance. There is a good deal in training, to be sure, but nature tells too. Why I believe I would make a good artillery officer if I was put to it. General, you heard how I laid one of them guns the other day and touched her off with my own hand and sent the ball right into a tree half-a-mile away." The colonel evidently thought he had by that feat proved his fitness for the command of a field battery. One of the German officers who listening to the lively old man's talk whispered to me, "Dere is a good many of tese colonels in dis camp."—Russell's "My Diary, North and South."

THE BIGGEST STORY.—The circulars relating to safes, which have been freely circulated, call to mind a story. The agents of two rival establishments were presenting their claims to an admiring crowd. One was a Yankee, and the other wasn't. He that was not told his story. A rooster had been shut up in one of his safes and then exposed for nearly three days to a most intense heat.—When the door was opened the rooster strutted out as if nothing had happened. It was now the Yankee's turn. A rooster had also been shut up in his safe, and it was submitted to the trial of a tremendous heat for more than a week. The legs of the safe had been melted off and the door itself so far as to require the use of a cold chisel to get it open. When it was opened the rooster was found frozen dead!

A SHORT SERMON AND A GOOD ONE.—Rev. Dr. B , of Philadelphia, is noted for brief, sententious sayings in the pulpit and out of it. As he was going down Chestnut street one day, a gentleman asked him: "Sir, can you tell me how to find the Sheriff's office?" "Yes, Sir," was the reply; "every time you earn five dollars, spend two!" Saying this, the Doctor walked on, leaving his questioner gaping upon the side walk. He was a stranger who had come to town on business, and asked for information; but the more he pondered the more he was convinced that his unknown informant had answered him wisely.—N. Y. Observer.

A NATURAL SOLUTION.—Aunt Sally, as she is called in our village, had lived a few years with us when she buried a second husband, the first having been buried in Rushville, some ten miles north, where she was first married. Speaking of her great and recent affliction, she said: "We all have our trials and troubles, but I am most crazy now to know which of my dear husbands I shall be buried alongside of." She went so nearly crazy about it that she finally had to decide the question by taking a third.

"Where's my wife?" enquired our friend Nil, on returning home early one evening and missing his better half. "She has gone to bed with the toothache," was the reply of some member of the family. "Well," said the indignant Nil, "if she had rather go to bed with the toothache than go to bed with me, let her go;" and he forthwith settled himself to the perusal of the latest war news.

The celebrated John Foster thus describes a bigot: "He sees religion, not as a sphere, but a line, and it is a line in which he is moving. He is like an African buffalo—sees right forward, but nothing on the right or left. He would not perceive a legion of angels or devils at the distance of ten yards on the one side or the other."

LEGAL.

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all net profits of the State derived from any source whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, hired help, Rents, Drayage, &c., necessary to carry on his business; but no farmer, merchant, mechanic, or any person, has a right to deduct his own labor as a much expense from his income.

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st, 1862, every body should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year. And as many sources of income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks, interest, &c., (they having already paid the income tax) are not again taxed. It therefore becomes necessary to keep a clear record of the sources of income, that there may be no dispute with the Assessor.

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the net profits of his business for the year, and pay the tax on the amount less $600.

A man may, outside of his business, spend all and even more than his profits in the business; nevertheless he must pay tax on all net business profits except the $600. And so with a salary, all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses consume it all.

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May, 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June, 1863. And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June, as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M.D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I use your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since I got it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five cents a bottle than do without it, or take any other."

Croup, Whooping Cough, &c.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Feb. 7, 1855.

BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify that your CHERRY PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We all of us South appreciate your skill, and commend your remedies to our people. WILLIAM CONNER, M.D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, Ia., writes, 24 June, 1854: "I had a tedious influenza, which confined me in a dangerous state. I took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL, by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved me very much, and a few bottles have made me completely well. Your medicines are the best as well as the best we can buy, and we shall use no other. Please send us your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, Pa., Feb. 20, 1855.

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing many cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming cases of consumption, and is now curing a man who has had an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.
